

Amol Pandurang Ahire .. Applicant

Versus

State of Maharashtra .. Respondent

Mrs.Ruchita Dhuru, amicus curaie
Mrs.M.M.Deshmukh, A.P.P. for State.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.
DATE : 24th August 2006.

P.C.

. This application is forwarded to this Court and received some time in June 2005.

2. It is pointed out that the applicant accused has already filed three applications for bail through Advocates and this Court has rejected all of them on merits.

3. Ms.Dhuru, learned Advocate appearing Amicus Curaie, submits that the orders do not pertain to the case under which the applicant is in custody. She invites my attention to the C.R.Numbers mentioned in the copy of the orders of this Court and submits that this Court should call for the records and proceedings in the matter.

4. Ms.Deshmukh, learned A.P.P. points out that the details are pertaining to this very applicant. He is charged with an offence punishable under section 396 read with 109 of I.P.C. along with others and is presently in custody. That apart, she submits that the case has been transferred to the fast track court and recording of evidence is complete. Matter is awaiting judgement.

5. In such circumstances, I do not find this a fit case to grant bail. Application dismissed.
